Notes from Life Science

Wow!! Titans are great-hearted AND generous! Thanks to both high school and middle school, we collected $350 to support orphaned elephants at the David Sheldrick Wildlife Trust in Africa. This means we can continue to support the same six elephants we sponsored this year PLUS add an additional orphan.

Thank You to all who donated empty cube Kleenex boxes for Liberty Wildlife woodpecker houses the past couple months. Thanks to Chandler Prep families, we collected 70 of these cube boxes. We will still be collecting Kleenex boxes in the container in the forum through this Friday.

Great News for Animal Lovers! Some of our beloved Chandler Prep pets are still available to spend part of their summer with YOU! Puzzle, our queen bunny, is available, as are our three adorable rattie brothers, Scout, Einstein, and Otto. If you are interested in learning more about hosting one of our Chandler Prep pets, please email Mrs. Goodwin at mgoodwin@chandlerprep.org. She will set up a time to meet with you and answer all your questions. Most families choose to host a pet for only part of the summer, typically three or four weeks.

Please consider donating them for other kids in need! 10th Grader Quenton Barger will be collecting gently used cleats and basketball shoes to help out other families. Look for a collection box in the forum and at our Spring Sports Awards. Help make a difference in your community. Thank you!

10:00 pm to 4:00 am (or 6 am at IHOP)

Grad Night is going to be a night to remember! More than half of the Chandler Prep senior class has already signed up – Don't miss your chance! Uptown Jungle is a cross between a young adult Makutu's Island and a music party. They can also bring their yearbooks for signing. Buy your tickets now!

The first activity will be the professional stage hypnosis show which is one of the funniest, most enjoyable experiences that they will ever watch or participate in. There is nothing funnier than seeing your friends perform on stage like Hollywood Stars. Then the grads can move on to dodge ball, wall climbing, zip lining, karaoke, casino tables, nerf-like wars, gigantic raised obstacle courses, and so much more! Pizza and drinks included too!

Savings Alert Please do not let your senior miss this once-in-a-lifetime culmination of their school experiences (many grads say this is the best night of their high school experience). That's a $25 savings!!! For this much all-night entertainment, it's an amazing bargain! Transportation is still first come, first serve as space is limited. Click here for details and tickets!
